NEWSFLASH

10th September 2007

NEWSLETTER No 20 will be sent out around the end of the month.

In the meantime, I hope that you all saw the interesting article in the September issue of Strategic RISK magazine entitled “Getting the message” which highlighted the problems of communication.

The editor, Sue Copeman, has invited our SIG to submit a follow-up piece of either 900 words or 1,800 words. I can manage the former on the theme of lateral communication and “need to know”, which forms part of our forthcoming NEWSLETTER. Would anyone like to add anything to make up the 1,800 words? If so, please let me have the data for inclusion within the next two weeks (26th September latest) to allow me to process this for the subsequent Publisher’s deadline.

Thank you.
